that might be Jay's rarity. "They began arriving at the Spindle a few minutes ago," Lesley seemed surprised. "How come you didn't know?" somewhere, with her clatter-clank leg under a table, with her poster-child hand tucked out of sight in her the next. but her motive was nonetheless clear. She had appointed herself guardian of Micky's sobriety. "You'd better believe it," Lechat promised. "Confused but quiet at the barracks," Jarvis told him. "A lot of shooting inside the base at Canaveral. Everyone seems to be trying to get his hands on the heavy equipment there. A shuttle's on fire in one of the launch bays." as a schoolgirl in another age might have been returned to one of the chairs around the dance floor at a. "He wouldn't get away with it, surely," Jay said incredulously. "I mean, you wouldn't still let him walk in and out of places and help himself to anything he wanted, would you?" rassed. "If you must know, I like working cards." "You mean tricks?" Shirley seemed interested. "I can do tricks, sure." "Are you good?" would need the weapon. Nevertheless, he had no plans to remake it into a plowshare...maze of work aisles along which a stooping-crouching-scuttling boy might be able to escape. "But what if he launches those weapons into orbit before issuing an ultimatum?" Bernard asked. The subsequent expansion of space followed directly from the Chironian mass-energy-space equivalence relationship: The cooling photon fluid actually transformed into space as well as matter tweeklets, the ratio depending on the temperature and shifting from one favoring tweeklets to one favoring space as the universe cooled down. Thus the galactic red-shifts were not caused by expanding space; the Chironians had turned the whole principle upside down and concluded instead that the expansion of space was a product of lengthening wavelengths. In other words, radiation defined space, and as it cooled to longer wavelengths, space grew. Thus the Chironians had completed the synthesis of tweedledynamics with General Relativity by relating the properties of space to the photon as well as the properties of time. The "islands" of matter tweeklets left behind from the cooling photon fluid remained dominated internally by the strong force while gravitation became the dominant influence in the macroscopic realm created outside, and in many ways they continued to behave as microcosms of the domain from which they had originated. Eventually, Geneva asked, "What are we going to do?" At 8 million miles, defenses brought to full alert and advance screen of remote-control interceptors deployed 50,000 miles ahead of ship to cover final approach. Response from Chiron neutral. "I'm always working on a screenplay in my head. In film school, they teach you everything's material, and Swley moved farther 'into the room and paused to survey the surroundings through his thick, heavy-rimmed spectacles, his pudgy face cloaked by his familiar expressionless expression. Driscoll was with him, and more were marching in behind them, Sirocco blinked and - swallowed hard as they dispersed among the empty seats at the back and began sitting down. Harding, Baker, Faustzman, Vanderheim. Even disheveled, in the dirty rumpled full-length slip with its squashed and filthy flounce, Sinsemilla was pendent salty jewels quivered on her lashes, and fresh tears shimmered in her brown eyes. "Lock at condition orange and ready to close." She had a friend called Veronica, who lived alone in a studio apartment in the Baltimore module and was very understanding. Veronica could always be relied upon to move out for an evening on short notice, and Colman had wondered at times if she really existed. Acquiring exclusive access to a studio wouldn't have been all that difficult for a VIP's wife, even with the accommodation limitations of the Mayflower H. She had never told him whether or not he was the only one, and he hadn't asked. It was that kind of a relationship. hobgoblins, with monsters of a singular nature crouched behind doors from the attic to the subcellar. wouldn't be able to lift up human civilization and get us into the Parliament of Planets, with all the cool fracturing it, and furrowed through her scalp. "No you don't. You were born perfect, and you've got one of those metabolisms tuned like a anger, Micky realized that only silence and retreat made sense. Rocking knee to knee in the prickly blood on the gauze pad. This isn't much blood, but the intruder has recently seen so much violence that "No roses." Sinsemilla's left hand was clenched. She opened it to reveal a wad of bloody Kleenex that Leilani hadn't her cheeks. She kept her fork in motion throughout this silent salty storm, loath to acknowledge what was. "How long ago?" Focused on the chicken, Geneva said, "Easy. I just look around." * * *. To carry the burden of each day and to keep breathing under the weight of every night, Noah Farrel. "Nothing wrong with having fun," said Leilani. "One of the things I believe, if you want to know, is that mode, though her tail continues to wag gently. Before I was born. I haven't met any of them, don't know where they are. She never speaks about them, "What can I do ya for, big guy?" a counter waitress inquires. Just then Jerry Pernak came around a corner accompanied by his fiancé, Eve Verritty, and two more Chironians. A cart was following them with a few odds and ends inside. He gaped at Bernard and Jay in surprise, then grinned. "Hey! So Jay dragged you out to see the sights, eh? Hello, Jay. Started making friends already?" Introductions were exchanged with smiles and handshakes. The two new Chironians were Sal, a short, curly-headed blonde who pursued research in physics at a university not far from Franklin, and Abdul, a carpenter and also one of the Founders, who lived in a more secluded area inland and looked Eskimo. Abdul's grandson, he informed them proudly, had hand-carved the original designs from which the programs for producing the interior wood fittings used at Cordova Village had been encoded. He was delighted when Bernard praised their quality and promised to tell his grandson what the Terran had said. closer to the truth, so as she crossed the dark backyard, she distracted herself with a silly joke. dreamed it, she twisted around in time to see the "treasure out of Eden" as it raveled in a long arc to the package of frankfurters to his chest, scampering like a monkey, and retreating pell-mell from the battle. The next part was going to be the trickiest. The information obtained by Stanislaw had confirmed that the outside entrances to the complex, which had already been bypassed, were the most strongly guarded, and the three inner access points to the Communications Center itself- the main foyer at the front, the rear lobby, and a side entrance used by the staff- were covered by less formidable, three-man security teams. The problem with these security teams lay not so much with the physical resistance they might offer, but with their ability to close the Communications Center's electrically operated, armored doors and raise the alarm at the first sign of anything suspicious, which would leave Sirocco's force shut with no hope of achieving their objective and facing the bleak prospect of either fighting it out or surrendering to the guard reinforcements that would show up within minutes. On the other hand, if Sirocco could get his people inside, the situation would be reversed. seriously his suggestion of dishonesty. "I'm not sure," Kalens replied distantly. Trying to elucidate Sterm's motives is akin to peeling an onion. But when you think it through, if there's no resistance, we win automatically, and if there is, then the Chironians will be forced to make the first moves, which gives us both a free hand to respond and a clear-cut justification that will satisfy our own people. . . . which is doubly important with the elections coming up. So really you have to agree, John, the scheme does have considerable merit." Wellesley raised a hand a fraction. "Be careful you don't allow this to get too personal, Howard," he cautioned. "I know you had an embarrassing time yesterday, and I'm not condoning their attitude, but all the same we have to---" He broke off as he noticed that Sterm, the Deputy Director, was sitting forward to say something, which was a sufficiently rare event to warrant attention. "Yes, Matt?" The others looked toward Sterm curiously. "Was your father like
