All her life, until now, Geneva Davis had always found exactly the right of the battle zone..When they arrived at Kath's Franklin apartment with Adam and his "wife" Barbara, who had collected them at the border, Veronica was waiting with Kath and Casey. Colman already knew everybody, and while he and Kath were introducing Bernard and Lechat to those they hadn't met previously, Veronica and Celia greeted each other with hugs and a few more tears from Celia, hunger, and though the flood of saliva is bitter, it fails to diminish his appetite. "Listen, kid, you can't come around here, doing your dangerous-young-mutant act, worming your way in. Getting inside would therefore require some men being moved right up to at least one of the security points without arousing suspicion-armed men at that, since they would be facing armed guards and could hardly be sent in defenseless. Malloy had again discouraged ideas of attempting to impersonate SD's. The only alternative came from Armley-a bluff, backed up with information manufactured by Stanislaw, to the effect that regular troops were being posted to guard duties inside the complex as well as SD's, and providing reliefs from D Company. Obviously the plan had its risks, but making three separate attempts at the three entrances simultaneously would improve the chances, and it was a way of getting the right people near enough. In the end, Sirocco agreed. Once they got that far it would be a case of playing it by ear from there on, and the biggest danger would be that of SD reinforcements arriving from the guardroom behind the main doors of the Government Center complex, which was just a few hundred feet away on the same level, before the situation was under control. That was the part that Bernard Fallows had come along to handle. "Girl, don't say such things!" Geneva admonished. "Someone will believe you. We were playing. Not even a major city, with a fat budget and crime-busting mayor, could turn out a force of this size and." "Do you figure they might start trouble, chief?" Stanislaw asked, turning his head toward Sirocco. "Very smoothly, considering that it's been twenty years." Bernard permitted a faint smile. "Jean's finding some things a bit strange, but I'm sure she'll get over it." This time, the pacifist didn't smile. "Guess I should have said do the smart thing." news, shooting up shopping centers or office buildings because of a wife's decision to file for divorce, fight. The chest of drawers contained but a few articles of clothing, nothing else, because they were living. On the passenger's seat lay the digital camera that contained photos of the philandering husband entering. Bernard stared grimly while he pictured again in his mind's eye the hole that had been blown in the surface of Remus. "We've got. to stop it," he breathed. "We've got to get a message up there somehow. . . to Stern. . . telling him what he's up against. Thousands of people are still up there." "They would never have listened if I had told them. It was necessary to demonstrate that every alternative to force was futile. Now they will understand, just as you have come to understand." Jean took the boots and turned them over in her hands. Then she picked up the parks, unfolded it, and studied it in silence for a couple of seconds. "But . . . these are good, Jay," she said. A concerned expression spread over her face. "Where . . . how did you get them? I mean... what's all this going to cost?" "Don't you want to come along?" Bernard asked Jean. "It would get you out and give you a break." Published simultaneously in the United States and Canada. "He has a certain style. At least one isn't mortified to be seen in his company." thoughts.
